TODAY'S MESSAGE

Dear St. Cyprian Family,

This Sunday, we recall Christ's triumphant entry into Jerusalem, waving palms and proclaiming Him king. Yet, within days, the jubilant cries turn to demands for crucifixion. This dramatic shift speaks to the heart of Holy Week.

As we follow Jesus through his passion, we witness the depths of His love and the power of His sacrifice. Though it may not always be easy, we're invited to walk this path alongside Him. Let us not shy away from the difficult and the painful. Let us walk with Jesus through those dark hours, remembering that even in the depths of sorrow, seeds of hope lie hidden.

The story doesn't end on Good Friday. Let us hold onto the promise of the empty tomb, the promise of resurrection, and the unwavering power of God's love.

May this Holy Week be a time of deep reflection, honest prayer, and a renewed commitment to walking the path of love, even when it leads through shadows.

Together, let us find strength and hope in the enduring power of Christ's sacrifice.

Lenten Blessings,
Fr. Vincent

We need each of you to get involved if we are to reach our Annual Diocesan Appeal goal. Please make a pledge today. A follow-up mailing will be sent this week to all those who have yet to make their pledge to the ADA. Pledge forms and brochures can be found in the vestibule area of the church.

If you have any questions about the ADA, or how it benefits our parish, please visit our diocesan website at www.dsj.org/ada and discover the many ways you make a difference.

RICE BOWL

Palm Sunday marks the beginning of Holy Week. As we walk with Jesus this week, we remember the countless women, children and men who carry heavy crosses even today: crosses of hunger, of vulnerability to climate change, or of a lack of resources. How, like Simon of Cyrene, can you help to carry the crosses of our sisters and brothers in your local community and around the world? Visit csricebowl.org/holy-week to learn more.
